CUES® Recognizes 2019 CUES Governance Leadership Institute™ Graduates

MADISON, Wis.—CUES is pleased to recognize 45 credit union board members and executives who recently completed CUES Governance Leadership Institute held at the prestigious, Joseph L. Rotman School of Management, University of Toronto. All have earned the distinguished Certified Credit Union Director (CCD) designation, bringing the number of credit union executives and directors who have their CCD to 873.

Attendees of this graduate-level program learned from the distinguished faculty at Joseph L. Rotman School of Management, University of Toronto, and leave knowing how to balance healthy debate and diversity with consensus building. Key issues of study include strategy in the boardroom, risk management, negotiations, duty and liability, influencing change, succession planning, and communications.

Highly respected Rotman was ranked Canada's number one Open Enrolment Executive Education Provider, and seventh globally for new skills and learning as ranked by the Financial Times in 2019.

To learn more about CUES or CUES Governance Leadership Institute, visit cues.org/GLI, or contact Teresa Brogan, CUES' executive education specialist, at 800.252.2664 or 608.271.2664, ext. 331; or email teresab@cues.org.

CUES' mission is to educate and develop credit union CEOs, executives, directors and future leaders.
