PSCU Offers Payments Expertise as Newest CUESolutions Provider Partner

MADISON, Wis. – CUES® is pleased to welcome PSCU as the latest CUESolutions provider. In this capacity, the industry's premier CUSO will offer innovative payments solutions to CUES members.

CUESolutions easily connects credit unions with content and thought leadership from some of the industry's top suppliers, and the products and services they have to offer. CUES members benefit from this unique partnership, as it gives them easy access to already vetted, trusted providers.

"The challenging times we've found ourselves in means payments solutions are more important than ever," said John Pembroke, CUES President/CEO. "As our newest CUESolutions partner, PSCU offers CUES members trusted resources to turn to; the wealth of information they can provide our members will prove to be invaluable."

"PSCU is proud to be a longstanding CUES member and supplier," said Merry Pateuk, Senior Vice President, Industry Engagement, PSCU. "Partnering with CUES as a CUESolutions provider for payments, an area that represents the majority of consumers' interactions with financial institutions, allows us to leverage our collaborative industry relationships and broaden the pipeline for communicating PSCU's recognized expertise, commitment to credit unions and thought leadership in the payments space."
