CUES® Celebrates Learning and Development Month with Contest

MADISON, Wis.—It is important in both your professional and personal life to keep learning; and Learning and Development Month encourages all people to focus on broadening and advancing their skills.

“At CUES, this is what we stand for, helping each member reach their individual potential,” said Jimese Harkley, JD, CUDE, CUES VP/Membership. “So, we are going to celebrate Learning and Development Month in a big way this year. Each week in October CUES will hold a drawing for one CUES member and one CUES director member to win an individual registration to Knowledge & Networking November or Directors & Dialogue December.”

To be entered into the weekly drawing you must:
